- 12.01 a) Seniority is defined as the length of service from the first date of hire. Seniority, degree of qualification, suitability and aptitude for the position in question shall be used in determining preference or priority for promotions, transfers, shift allocations, demotions, layoffs, and recall where the ability of affected individuals to perform the work in question is relatively equal. Seniority shall operate on a departmental basis with displacement privileges within the department only, unless otherwise mutually agreed. Mutual agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- b) When mutually agreed, pursuant to 12.01(a), an Employee who has the required qualifications as outlined in the job description will be able to execute their seniority in another department. If possible and mutually agreed, the Employee will be given a reasonable amount of time (ninety [90] days) to obtain the required qualifications.
- c) Seniority for full-time permanent and term Employees shall be earned on a basis of months employed.
- d) Seniority for part-time permanent and term Employees shall only apply in relation to other part-time Employees in the department in which they are employed based on regular accumulated hours worked. Seniority of full-time Employees will take precedence over part-time employees. Temporary Employees shall not accumulate seniority.
- e) Seniority as defined in this Article shall apply to Article 15.
- f) An Employee who is on an approved leave of absence for a period which exceeds six (6) continuous months shall have their seniority frozen until such time as their return to work or they are terminated.
- 12.02 The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each Employee's service commenced. A separate seniority list shall be maintained for part-time employees. Up-to-date seniority lists shall be sent to the Union by the 31st of January of each year.
- 12.03 a) An Employee shall not lose seniority rights if they are absent from work because of sickness, accident, layoff, or leave of absence approved by the Employer.

- d) During this probation, an Employee shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement except with respect to discharge. The employment of an Employee may be terminated at any time during the probationary period without recourse to the Grievance Procedure by the Employer provided that the provisions of Articles 11.01 and 13.01 (e) are followed. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the last date of hire.
- e) Employees shall be given regular, appropriate performance feedback throughout their probationary period by their supervisor.
- i) Full-time Employees shall be evaluated mid-way through and just prior to the end of the probationary period.

- 14.01 a) The Union shall be notified in writing of all appointments, hiring, layoffs, transfers, recalls and termination of employment within the bargaining unit.
- b) The Employer shall notify the Union electronically by email and post in staff areas a list of current job openings, in order that all members will know about the positions and therefore be able to apply if interested. This list will be updated every seven (7) calendar days and postings will be open for at least seven (7) calendar days.
- 14.02 Job postings for positions within the bargaining unit shall contain the following information: nature of position, qualifications, required knowledge and education, skills, shift, wage or salary range or rate. Those qualifications shall not be established in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner.
- 14.03 An Employee who is on vacation, leave of absence, or layoff may request to be notified of any new or vacant position. These Employees shall provide the Human Resources Manager with a contact e-mail and will have seven (7) working days to apply.
- 14.04 Both parties recognize:
- a) the principle of promotion within the services of the Employer.
- b) that job opportunity should increase in proportion to length of service.
- c) Therefore, in making staff changes, transfers or promotions, appointment shall be made of the applicant according to seniority, degree of qualification, suitability and aptitude for the position. Appointments from within the Union shall be made within three (3) weeks of the date of posting.
- d) If no internal candidate is successful, positions shall be filled by undergraduate students enrolled at the University of Alberta, whenever reasonable.
- 14.05 a) The successful applicant shall be placed in a trial period of up to six (6) months. Conditional on satisfactory service, the position shall become permanent after the trial period.
- b) In the event the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the trial period, or if the Employee finds themselves unable to perform the duties of the new job classification, they shall be returned to their former position without loss of seniority and to their previous salary. Dismissal of an Employee displaced as a result of this clause shall not be subject to the grievance procedure.
- c) If a part-time Employee proves unsatisfactory in a second or subsequent position, the loss of that position will not affect the Employee's status in other positions unless the loss of the position was due to one or more serious infractions as described in Article 11.02.
- 14.06 In cases of promotion requiring higher qualifications or certification, the Employer shall give consideration to the senior Employee who does not possess the required qualifications, but is preparing for qualification prior to filling of a vacancy. Such Employee will be given opportunity to qualify within a reasonably prescribed length of time (six [6] months).
- 14.07 No Employee shall be transferred to a position outside the Union without their consent. If the Employee returns to a Union position such return shall not result in the layoff or bumping of any other employee.

- 14.08 a) When the Employer wishes to transfer an Employee with the required qualifications, during slack periods, to a position within the Union, this will not result in the layoff or bumping of any other Employee. This shall be done for a period of no longer than three (3) months. Any transfer of longer than three (3) months shall require the consent of the Union.
- b) The Employer will have the right to terminate temporary Employees due to lack of work in this case. Such Employees will have no rights under the Collective Agreement on termination. For periods of less than two (2) weeks, temporary and relief Employees will be laid off, subject to recall as provided in Article 15.
- 14.09 Where feasible and with the express consent of the Employee, the Employer will inaugurate and maintain a system of "on the job" training so that every Employee will have the opportunity to receive training and qualifications for promotion, in the event of a vacancy arising, to the position next senior to their own. Accordingly, senior Employees shall be allowed regular opportunities to learn the work of such positions during the regular working hours by arranging with interested Employees to exchange positions for temporary periods, without affecting the rate of the Employees concerned.
- 14.10 Selection of applicants for new or vacant positions falling within the scope of the Union shall be made by the appropriate Area Manager and/or Supervisor concerned, subject to ratification by the General Manager.
- 14.11 When an Employee is promoted or transferred to a classification carrying a higher rate of pay, such Employee shall be placed in a pay rate in their new classification, which provides an immediate increase over their previous salary rate. Thereafter, their increment(s) shall be effective on the anniversary date of transfer or promotion.
- 14.12 a) Employees demoted or transferred to a classification carrying a lower rate of pay shall continue to receive all increments of their former classification, as well as any negotiated increases that may apply, for a period of one year from the date the Employee assumes the new classification.
- b) Once the year addressed in Article 14.12 a) has expired, the Employee's wage rate will be frozen until such time as the wage rate of the lower classification equals that of the affected Employee's wage rate.
- c) This clause will not apply to a lateral move to a position with the same salary grid.

ARTICLE 15 - LAYOFFS, SEVERANCE, AND RECALLS

- 15.01 a) Both parties recognize that job security should increase in proportion to the length of service. Therefore, in the event of layoff, Employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their seniority provided that no Employee is to be displaced by a person with more seniority unless the latter possesses the occupational qualifications of the job filled by the Employee with less seniority. Employees shall be recalled in order of their seniority provided an Employee has the required minimum qualification as outlined in the job description to exercise this seniority. If possible, and mutually agreeable, the Employee will be given a reasonable amount of time (ninety [90] days) to obtain required qualifications.
- b) Part-time Employees will be laid off before full-time employees. Full-time Employees will be recalled prior to part-time employees.

- 15.02 No new Employees will be hired until those laid off have been given an opportunity of re-employment, in writing, with a copy to the Union.
- a) When work becomes available, the Employer agrees to re-engage such Employees whose ability to perform the work in question is relatively equal in order of seniority. Notice of recall shall be by registered mail or by email. It shall be the responsibility of the Employee to keep the Employer informed of their contact information and to indicate their preferred method of communication.
 - b) An Employee will advise the Employer of their intention to return to work within five (5) working days of receiving notice of recall. An Employee who accepts recall must report for work within five (5) working days.

- i) two (2) weeks, if the Employee has been employed for more than six (6) months but less than two (2) years,
 - ii) three (3) weeks, if the Employee has been employed for two (2) years or more but less than four (4) years,
 - iii) five (5) weeks, if the Employee has been employed for four (4) years or more but less than six (6) years,

- b) The Employee shall be paid in lieu of notice for that part of the notice period during which work was not available. An Employee who is on required layoff for a period of twelve (12) months will be declared redundant. When the Employee is declared redundant, Article 15.07 will apply.
- 15.04 a) The Employer agrees to pay the premiums as addressed in Article 29.02 a) for the Employees laid off for periods of six (6) months or less. - b) This clause will not include part-time or temporary employees.
- 15.05 Grievances concerning layoffs shall be initiated at Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure.
- 15.06 a) No permanent or term Employee, having occupied the same position for one year or more, will be laid off or suffer redundancy or a reduction in salary or hourly wage during the term of this Agreement because of the introduction of new or modified equipment, associated changes in methods of operation, and/or modification of the Employer's operation, in any way except as provided in the following.

- b) The Employer shall advise and discuss such changes thoroughly with the Union, within a period of one hundred and eighty (180) days but not less than ninety (90) days prior to the introduction of new or modified equipment, associated changes in methods and/or the modification of the Employer's operation which may result in layoff of Employee(s). Wherever possible, this shall be avoided by retraining, relocation, or reassignment of the Employees affected.
- c) The posting requirements of this Agreement shall not apply where Employee(s) is/are retrained, reassigned, and/or relocated under the terms of this Article. If an Employee refuses to be retrained, reassigned, and/or relocated, they may be subject to layoff, as provided in Article 15.01.

AGREEMENT TO WAIVE COMPREHENSIVE MEDICAL BENEFITS

As an hourly paid University of Alberta Students' Union Employee, and CUPE member, I understand as per Article 29.02 a) of the Collective Agreement that by having worked one thousand four hundred and sixty two and one half (1,462.5) total hours with an average of thirty (30) hours or more per week over six months, I would qualify for the comprehensive medical benefits including extended health, vision, and dental coverage and $5000 life insurance.

I would like to waive my right to the comprehensive medical benefits in the event that my hours of work are increased to thirty (30) hours per week or more. I make this request because I wish to be considered for additional hours if they are available, but fully understand that the Students' Union is making no commitment to or guarantee of such additional hours.

I understand that I may cancel this waiver of benefits by providing the Employer with fourteen (14) days written notice of cancellation of this Letter of Agreement. Accrual of hours as defined in Article 29.02 b) shall start from the date of such cancellation.

Further, I understand that participation in the comprehensive medical plan will be determined by the policies of the Students' Union's current medical benefit provider.
